Through legislation passed by the 68th General Assembly, the Illinois Veterans' Commission was charged with the responsibility of compiling, publishing, and distributing an up-to-date Honor Roll. This Honor Roll includes the names, burial places, and other related information concerning all members of the Armed Forces of the United States buried in the State of Illinois. The intent of this legislation was to provide a record to assist in honoring our dead.

This booklet contains the names of those veterans buried in this county prior to July 1, 1955. The burials are listed by cemetery and are as correct as possible. In some instances it has been impossible to locate graves and available records have not always supplied needed information.

The Illinois Veterans' Commission wishes to acknowledge the contribution made by the individual members of the various veteran organizations in obtaining the data contained in this publication.

The Illinois Veterans Commission has not published a listing of burials since 1956. They would appreciate receiving listings from any area of those left out in the first publication .

Page 1: CIVIL WAR MEDAL OF HONOR WINNERS FROM ILLINOIS -- An Index of Names from pamphlet of that title published by the Civil War Centennial Commission of Illinois, July 1962, under authority of Otto Kerner, Governor.

The State of Illinois played a role in the lives of 105 Civil War winners of the "Congressional Medal of Honor", first awarded during that North-South struggle. It was on December 21, 1861, that President Abraham Lincoln approved a bill creating a Navy Medal of Honor, and on June 12, 1862, he signed into law a resolution providing for presentation of Medals of Honor to enlisted men of the Army who "shall most distinguish themselves by their gallantry in action, and other soldier-like qualities . . ."

The information included in this report (title above), consists of the Medal winner's name, rank, and regiment; his birthplace and residence at the time of enlistment; the action (date and place) for which he was decorated; and the date on which he actually received his award.

For the benefit of our genealogical researchers who have not been aware of this source book, we are giving an index of the men so honored. We have a xerox copy of this in our possession. You could write to the Ill. State Historical Library in Springfield requesting copies of any of the 13 pages which might have the name you are seeking. They require 20 cents per page plus a long self-addressed stamped envelope. Also request title page showing medal. [Sample entries.]

Pillars, monument get 'new look'

TWO STONE PILLARS at the west entrance to Central Park Plaza honoring veterans of World War I as well as the large monument in the center of the plaza honoring Civil War veterans are getting a facelift. Workmen from Mid-Continental Restoration Co. are busy working on the pillars and they will continue their efforts to put new mortar and waterproofing between the stones. The "Green Mother," as it is often called, in the center of the park, the eagles atop the pillars and the bronze tablets will be chemically cleaned and should have their original lustre within a week or so. The firm plans to put a weatherproof coating on the bronze items to preserve the look.
